Professional Experience

iOS Developer / Access Code Fellowship - NYC, New York

June 2015 to Present

Access Code produces high quality iOS developers through a 9-month curriculum developed and taught by leading iOS experts from companies such as Yahoo, Artsy, and betaworks. Accepting only 5% of applicants, the highly selective program prepares graduates with both comprehensive technical training in iOS as well as an immersive entrepreneurial and product oriented learning

iOS Developer / Neverlate - NYC, New York

November to December 2015

Worked on a team of 2 other developers to design and develop Neverlate, a fun and motivating app that allows users to create a goal with a friend, and if they are late to their destination, they need to pay their buddy. Designed the UI and UX using Sketch 3. Using Neverlate, lateness was reduced 70% (Awaiting store approval)

iOS Developer / OfficeHours - NYC, New York

October 2015

Worked on a team of 2 other developers to build a community building app during a 48-hour Hackathon. OfficeHours helps underserved and underrepresented communities find local tutors to receive personalized help, with an emphasis on programming. Designed the UI and UX using Photoshop. Products were evaluated by an elite panel of judges including Benjamin Jackson, Director of Mobile at VICE Media, and Tony Barnes VP of Tech Innovation at Capital One.

Barista / Kaffe 1668 - NYC, New York

May to August 2015

Reduced time customers spent in line by 30%, planned with the owners to create highly efficient POS strategies that allowed for increased sales while maintaining quality service with increased orders. On a team of 3-4 other baristas on any given shift, worked with very different people but harmoniously worked together. Team earned 20% more tips when I was working.

Cook II / Stonehill Tavern at The St.Regis Monarch Beach - Dana Point, California

March to June 2014

Developed new seasonal dishes for the tasting menu alongside the executive and sous chef. Performed incredibly demanding tasks while under tremendous pressure from restaurant owner Michael Mina. Efficiently prepared the entire kitchen to be kosherized during a complete hotel buyout on Passover week, where several hundreds of people were served.
